2. PROCEDURAL DETAILS

- 2.1. These procedures apply to all Curtin contracts and agreements other than Research and Development contracts, employment contracts, student scholarship contracts or deeds of settlement.
- 2.2. Register all contracts and agreements in the Contracts and Agreements Register within seven days of:
  - 2.2.1. receipt of an original, hard copy, fully executed contract or agreement, or,
  - 2.2.2. receipt of a fully-executed, electronically scanned contract or agreement, where an original, hard-copy, fully executed version does not exist, or,
  - 2.2.3. receipt of any electronic copy or hard copy contract or agreement which does not require signature or is authorised by any other means.
- 2.3. Ensure Curtin Information Management and Archives receives all contracts and agreements as set out below:
  - 2.3.1. Contact Curtin Information Management and Archives when registered hard-copy contracts or agreements are ready for collection. Ensure that the corresponding coversheet generated by the Contracts and Agreements Register is enclosed with each contract.
  - 2.3.2. Where an original, hard copy, fully executed version does not exist, send the electronic copy of the contracts or agreements to Curtin Information Management and Archives here, with note of the unique Contract ID generated through the Contracts and Agreements Register (e.g. CAR-XXXX-XXXX).
- 2.4. Review contracts or agreements within seven days of receipt of the “Contract due to expire” notification email and the Contract Manager may:
  - 2.4.1. take no further action if the contract or agreement is to terminate upon expiry, or,
  - 2.4.2. commence discussions with the External Party involved if the contract or agreement is renewed, varied or renegotiated.
- 2.5. Access contracts or agreements
Where access to a contract or agreement is required:
  - 2.5.1. Obtain approval to access contract or agreement in writing from the Contract Manager listed in the Contracts and Agreements Register, or if unknown, from the Associate Director, Curtin Information Management and Archives.
  - 2.5.2. If access is denied by the Contract Manager, staff may make a request to the Associate Director, Curtin Information Management and Archives stating the reasons for request to access.
  - 2.5.3. The Associate Director, Curtin Information Management and Archives, may consult the Contract Manager, General Counsel Commercial and Information Disclosure and Compliance Officer in considering the request.
