Digital Publishing Procedures

1. LEGISLATION/ENTERPRISE AGREEMENT/POLICY SUPPORTED
   Brand Communications Policy

2. PROCEDURAL DETAILS
   These procedures provide a framework for the publishing of the University’s digital communications, including but not limited to all material published electronically, applications, CDs and DVDs.

   2.1. Material published electronically by the University will:
       (a) be consistent with and in support of the University’s Strategic Plan, Brand Identity Instructions and Curtin Values; and
       (b) appropriately identify the material’s relationship to the University.

   2.2. Digitally published material may be blocked without warning until the issue is either resolved or the material permanently removed, if found by the Chief Marketing Officer to:
       (a) breach these procedures, legislation or any other instrument of governance (see section 7);
       (b) fail to meet required accessibility standards;
       (c) adversely affect network or computer performance; or
       (d) be poorly maintained or have out-of-date information.

   2.3 Where content required to be published online to fulfil research or teaching objectives may be offensive to certain groups or individuals for cultural, religious or other reasons, University Marketing will:
       (a) if possible, limit access to those that are directly involved; or
       (b) warn potential audiences of the nature of the material.

3. RESPONSIBILITIES
   In addition to any responsibilities set out in section 2,
   The Chief Marketing Officer is responsible for:
   (a) the provision of a framework for digital publishing; and
   (b) managing Curtin’s digital presence.

4. SCOPE OF PROCEDURES
   These procedures apply to all staff (including staff that work outside of Australia), University Associates, contractors, and partners (including all Curtin campuses regardless of location) that create web and digital content for the University.

5. DEFINITIONS
   (Note: Commonly defined terms are located in the Curtin Common Definitions. Any defined terms below are specific to this document)

   Digital publishing
   Text, images, video, audio and multimedia material representing the University and its activities and directed to an audience in an electronic form and available on an electronic device. Includes web sites, videos, DVDs and mobile applications.
