PART 2 -- REPORTING AND INQUIRY

2.1 Reporting possible General Misconduct

(1) A Staff Member or Associate who suspects on reasonable grounds that a Student may be guilty of General Misconduct must report the matter to an Authorised Officer.

(2) A Student or other person who suspects on reasonable grounds that a Student may be guilty of General Misconduct may report the matter to an Authorised Officer.

2.2 Initial action by Authorised Officer

(1) As soon as practicable after receiving a report of possible General Misconduct, or after becoming aware in any other way of possible General Misconduct, the Authorised Officer must determine that -

(a) there are insufficient grounds to warrant further investigation – and take no further action;

(b) there are insufficient grounds to warrant further investigation – but arrange for the Student to attend counselling or a lecture, seminar, workshop or similar activity in relation to appropriate behaviour; or

(c) there are sufficient grounds to warrant further investigation – and initiate an inquiry.

(2) An inquiry initiated under rule 2.2(1)(c) may be undertaken -

(a) by the Authorised Officer;

(b) by a Staff Member or Associate appointed by the Authorised Officer to conduct the inquiry on his or her behalf; or

(c) by any other person appointed by the Authorised Officer to conduct the inquiry on his or her behalf.

Note: the person who undertakes the inquiry is referred to in these Rules as the Inquiry Officer.

(3) Where the Authorised Officer -

(a) is not the Academic Registrar; and

(b) determines under rule 2.2(1)(c) that there are sufficient grounds to warrant further investigation, the Authorised Officer must consider whether the instance of possible General Misconduct, if established, would be serious enough for an Award Rescission Penalty to be considered by the Relevant Student Discipline Panel.

(4) If the Authorised Officer considers, under subrule (3), that an Award Rescission Penalty could be considered by the Relevant Student Discipline Panel, the Authorised Officer must inform the Academic Registrar (to enable the Academic Registrar to exercise his or her functions under clause 2.1(3) and (4) of Schedule B).

2.3 Inquiry form and processes

(1) The form of an inquiry, and the processes used to conduct it, must be determined, on a case by case basis, having regard to the principles set out in rule 2.4(2) -

(a) by an Inquiry Officer who has been appointed under rule 2.2(2)(b) or (c) – where he or she has been authorised to do so by the Authorised Officer; or

(b) in any other case - by the Authorised Officer.

(2) For example, the Authorised Officer or Inquiry Officer under subrule (1), may determine, having regard to the seriousness of the matter, that the inquiry should include a formal hearing. For a less serious matter, the Authorised Officer may determine that the proper conduct of the inquiry does not require a hearing of any type, provided always that the principles under rule 2.4 are complied with.

2.4 Conducting an inquiry

(1) In this rule -

Allegation means the allegation of General Misconduct, or the suspected General Misconduct, that is the subject of the inquiry; and recommendation means a recommendation by the Inquiry Officer to the Relevant Student Discipline Panel.

(2) An Inquiry Officer must observe the following principles in conducting an inquiry -

(a) subject to confidentiality and privacy considerations, the Respondent Student must be -

(i) informed of the substance of the Allegation; and

(ii) given copies of, or access to, any relevant documents;

Note: section 5 of the Interpretation Act 1984 defines a 'document' (and also defines a 'publication' which is included in the definition of a 'document').

(b) the Respondent Student must be given an appropriate opportunity to respond to the Allegation before the Inquiry Officer makes a recommendation relating to the occurrence of General Misconduct;
(c) the Inquiry Officer -

(i) is not bound by the rules of evidence but may inform himself or herself on any matter in the manner that he or she considers to be appropriate;

(ii) must act and make recommendations fairly and according to the substantial merits of the case; and

(iii) must act speedily and with as little formality and technicality as practicable; and

(d) any recommendation relating to the occurrence of General Misconduct, or a finding on which that recommendation is based, must be reached on the balance of probabilities standard of proof.

Note: under the ‘Briginshaw principle’, the strength of the evidence necessary to reach a finding on the balance of probabilities may vary according to the circumstances, including the seriousness of the suspected misconduct (Briginshaw v Briginshaw (1938) 60 CLR 336, 362).

(3) In respect of the Respondent Student’s opportunity to respond -

(a) the Respondent Student must be given an opportunity to respond to the Allegation in writing;

(b) when permitted by the Inquiry Officer, the Respondent Student may be given an opportunity to respond orally;

(c) the Inquiry Officer must specify a date (and may extend the date) for the Respondent Student’s response that is at least 7 days after the Respondent Student has been given the information and any documents referred to in subrule (2)(a);

(d) if the Respondent Student does not take up the opportunity to respond, the Inquiry Officer, in the absence of that response, may make a recommendation as to whether General Misconduct has occurred; and

(e) a written response from the Respondent Student may comprise or include written statements from himself or herself, or any other person.

(4) Where the Inquiry Officer decides to hold a hearing -

(a) the Respondent Student must be given at least 7 days notice of the date and time of the hearing;

(b) the Inquiry Officer may direct the Respondent Student to attend the hearing; and

(c) if the Respondent Student fails to attend all or part of a hearing, it may proceed in his or her absence.
In attending a hearing, or making an oral response, the Respondent Student may be accompanied by another person, but the other person may not act as an advocate unless invited to do so by the Inquiry Officer.

2.5 Inquiry Officer’s Report

(1) As soon as practicable after conducting the inquiry under rule 2.4, the Inquiry Officer must -

(a) prepare an Inquiry Officer’s Report;

(b) give a copy of the Inquiry Officer’s Report to the Relevant Student Discipline Panel and (if the Inquiry Officer is not the Academic Registrar) to the Academic Registrar; and

(c) take whatever further action the Relevant Student Discipline Panel considers may be necessary or appropriate to ensure compliance with rule 2.4, or to enable the Relevant Student Discipline Panel to make a determination under rule 3.1.

(2) Examples of the action that may be taken under subrule (1)(c) are -

(a) making further investigations into, or analysis of, relevant factual issues, including additional documentation; and

(b) amending or replacing the Inquiry Officer’s Report.

(3) The Inquiry Officer’s Report must contain -

(a) the reasons for each recommendation relating to the occurrence or otherwise of General Misconduct;

(b) the findings on material questions of fact that led to each recommendation, referring to the evidence or other material on which those findings were based; and

(c) the Inquiry Officer’s view, and the reasons for his or her view, about the seriousness of the incidence of General Misconduct.

(4) The factors to be taken into account in assessing the seriousness of General Misconduct in a particular case include -

(a) the extent to which the behaviour was planned or deliberate;

(b) the degree of advantage gained or potentially gained;

(c) the potential disadvantage to other Students;

(d) the potential negative impact on the University; and

(e) the importance of taking clear and decisive action in relation to the matter.
PART 3 -- DETERMINATIONS BY RELEVANT STUDENT DISCIPLINE PANEL

3.1 Determination of Misconduct

(1) After reviewing the Inquiry Officer’s Report, the Relevant Student Discipline Panel may, at any time before making a determination under subrule (2), request the Inquiry Officer to take whatever action the Relevant Student Discipline Panel considers is necessary or appropriate –

(a) to ensure compliance with rule 2.4; or

(b) to enable the Relevant Student Discipline Panel to make a determination under subrule (2).

(2) As soon as practicable after being given an Inquiry Officer’s Report, the Relevant Student Discipline Panel must determine that -

(a) General Misconduct has occurred;

(b) General Misconduct has not occurred; or

(c) the available information is insufficient to enable a finding whether or not General Misconduct has occurred.

(3) If the Relevant Student Discipline Panel determines that General Misconduct has occurred, it must also determine, subject to subrule (4), which (if any) of one or more Category 1 Penalties or Category 2 Penalties are to be imposed.
