Digital Publishing Procedures

1. STRATEGIC PLAN THEME AND COMPLIANCE OBLIGATION SUPPORTED

Brand Communications Policy
Web Content Policy
Strategic Plan Theme: People and Culture

2. PROCEDURAL DETAILS

These procedures provide a framework for the publishing of the University’s digital communications, including all material published electronically, applications, CDs and DVDs.

2.1. Material published electronically by the University will:

(a) be consistent with and in support of the University’s Strategic Plan, Brand Identity Instructions and Curtin Values; and

(b) appropriately identify the material’s relationship to the University.

2.2. Digitally published material may be blocked without warning until the issue is either resolved or the material permanently removed, if found by the Director, Marketing Operations and Engagement to:

(a) breach these procedures, legislation or any other instrument of governance (see section 7);

(b) fail to meet required accessibility standards;

(c) adversely affect network or computer performance; or

(d) be poorly maintained or have out-of-date information.

2.3. Where content required to be published online to fulfil research or teaching objectives may be offensive to certain groups or individuals for cultural, religious or other reasons, University Marketing will:

(a) if possible, limit access to those that are directly involved; or

(b) warn potential audiences of the nature of the material.

3. RESPONSIBILITIES

In addition to any responsibilities set out in section 2, the Director, Marketing Operations and Engagement is responsible for:

(a) the provision of a framework for digital publishing; and

(b) managing Curtin’s digital presence.

4. SCOPE OF PROCEDURES

4.1. These procedures apply to all staff (including staff that work outside of Australia), University Associates, contractors, and partners (including all Curtin campuses regardless of location) that create web and digital content for the University.

4.2. These procedures do not apply to digital content (websites, applications, other) that form part of coursework not intended for wider public access or consumption.

5. DEFINITIONS

(Note: Commonly defined terms are located in the Curtin Common Definitions. Any defined terms below are specific to this document)
