

Sexual Assault and Sexual Harassment Prevention Policy

1. STRATEGIC PLAN THEME AND COMPLIANCE OBLIGATION SUPPORTED

Strategic Plan Theme: People and Culture

2. PURPOSE

Curtin is committed to fostering a culture of respect and safety. This policy outlines what constitutes sexual assault and sexual harassment and provides links to relevant Statutes, policies, procedures and other related documents.

3. POLICY STATEMENT

3.1 Sexual assault and sexual harassment are unacceptable and will not be tolerated.

3.2 Curtin aims to foster a culture of respect and safety which will help reduce incidents of sexual assault or sexual harassment.

3.3 If we become aware of sexual assault or sexual harassment affecting members of the University Community, we will:

- (a) support victims and survivors, in terms of both their physical and emotional wellbeing and their study or work responsibilities;
- (b) follow due process when addressing any allegations of sexual assault or sexual harassment to ensure such matters are resolved in a timely, proper and fair manner;
- (c) monitor our responses to continuously improve our support for victims and survivors, and to ensure consistency in our approach;
- (d) protect and support our students, staff, and other members of the Curtin community, regardless of where or when an incident occurred; and
- (e) consistent with our values, encourage and model respectful relationships at our campuses to ensure there is a shared understanding of the behaviours expected at Curtin University.

3.4 Fostering a culture of respect and safety and preventing sexual assault and sexual harassment

3.4.1 Members of the University Community will foster behaviours that enable an environment free from sexual assault and sexual harassment. These behaviours are expected in all University-related activities, whether physical or digital, on campus or off (including work integrated learning, secondments, exchanges and field research, and other such activities).

3.4.2 All staff and students will undertake relevant training as required.

3.5 Addressing sexual assault and sexual harassment

Emergencies, support and reporting

3.5.1 Anyone on the Bentley Campus can use the SafeZone Security App to trigger an immediate response from the Safer Community Team without alerting an alleged assailant, or call 4444. In emergencies, people can call 000.

Global campuses will provide appropriate contact numbers for help and support.

Anyone on University-supported activities interstate or overseas can ring International SOS on +61 2 9372 2469 and quote Membership No. 12AYCA656047.

3.5.2 Safety and wellbeing will be the primary focus of any immediate action.

3.5.3 Individuals who experience sexual assault may report their experience to the police or to the University (via the Safety at Curtin webpage or other available channel such as the Integrity and Standards Unit or Counselling Services) or to both, and may lodge such reports at the same time or at different times.

3.5.4 Allegations of sexual assault and sexual harassment, if proven, will constitute staff or student misconduct.

3.5.5 Allegations of sexual assault and sexual harassment where the respondent to the allegations is:

- a staff member or any other party to the Curtin Code of Conduct (which includes contractors) will be dealt with in accordance with the Complaints Procedures and associated guidelines, and, where appropriate, in accordance with the relevant Staff Agreement or contract of employment or engagement; and
- a student will be dealt with in accordance with Statute 10 - Student Discipline and General Misconduct Rules.

3.5.6 The University's reporting and investigations processes for dealing with sexual assault matters is separate to any criminal processes that may arise as a result of such matters being notified to the Police or Corruption and Crime Commission.

3.5.7 The University will take reasonable steps to ensure confidentiality for all parties concerned throughout these processes, except where disclosure of relevant information on a "need to know" basis is necessary to meet Curtin's duty of care to those affected or to meet legal requirements.

3.5.8 The University's obligation to meet its duty of care to all members of the University community in terms of their safety, security and wellbeing will always be of prime concern and cannot be ignored even in circumstances where the victim and survivor does not wish to lodge a formal complaint.

3.5.9 This policy does not limit the University's right to address and take action with respect to conduct pursuant to its Code of Conduct, the relevant Staff Agreement, Statutes and Rules, or relevant contractual provisions obligations.

4. SCOPE OF POLICY

This policy applies to the University community, including Council members, students, staff, University Associates, Curtin controlled entities, and all persons participating in University business or activities, including whether as a visitor, adjunct appointee, service provider, contractor or volunteer. This policy applies to the University's overseas campuses, to the extent that it is compatible with that campus' local laws.

5. DEFINITIONS

(Note: Commonly defined terms are located in the Curtin Common Definitions. Any defined terms below are specific to this document)

Consent

Consent broadly refers to consent freely and voluntarily given without the use of force, threat, intimidation, deceit or any fraudulent means.

Sexual assault

Sexual assault is when a person is forced, coerced or tricked into sexual acts against their will or without their consent, including when they have withdrawn their consent. Sexual assault:

- Is behaviour that the survivor has not invited or chosen
- Can be one-off events, or part of a pattern of violence
- May have a range of effects, including physical, emotional and psychological Sexual assault and other sexual offences are criminal offences.

Sexual harassment

Sexual harassment is:

- Any unwanted or unwelcome sexual behaviour, which makes a person feel offended, humiliated or intimidated.
- Interaction, flirtation or friendship which is not mutual or consensual.

Sexual harassment is as defined by the Sex Discrimination Act 1984 (Cth) and the Equal Opportunity Act 1984 (WA), and includes behaviour of an unwelcome sexual advance, or an unwelcome request for sexual favours; or engagement in other unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature which makes a person feel offended, humiliated or intimidated. Sexual harassment may in certain circumstances in employment also be considered bullying and subject to the jurisdiction of the Fair Work Commission.
